

SIT STAY ROLL OVER MUSH GOOD DOG

DOGSLEDDING MINNESOTA'S BOUNDARY WATERS WILDERNESS
MONDAY, FEB. 7 TO SUNDAY, FEB. 13, 2011

Learn the basics of winter camping and travel, dog care and harnessing, dogsledding, back-country skiing, snowshoeing, winter ecology, and cold weather comfort and safety. Then embark on a four-day, three-night guided dogsled trek into the wilderness of northern Minnesota! Travel by dog team each day with optional skiing and snowshoeing around camp. Spend evenings by the campfire, stargazing and watching for the northern lights. Get a warm night's sleep in a tent or a snow shelter you build yourself! No experience necessary. Fee is $1,415; tuition is extra. For class date and more information, contact Gib Egge at (630) 942-2787, eggegi@cod.edu, or the Field and Interdisciplinary Studies Office at (630) 942-2356.
