

TUESDAY, AUG. 2 TO THURSDAY, AUG. 18, 2011

Join us for a total immersion into Polynesian culture and a glimpse of Chilean mainland society. Rapa Nui's famous archaeological sites serve as monumental classrooms on this unique adventure to the South Pacific. Gain in-depth, anthropological knowledge about Oceania, Pacific cultures and Polynesian people, including the Rapanui themselves. In Chile, visit important sites in Santiago and the coastal cities of Viña del Mar and Valparaíso. Pre-trip classes meet Thursday, July 21 and 28, from 6 to 7:50 p.m. The cost of $6,491 includes air/land transportation, lodging, most meals and most entrance fees. Tuition is extra. For more information, contact Dale Simpson, (630) 942-2052 or easterislandshortcourse.com. To register, call the Field and Interdisciplinary Studies office, (630) 942-2356. This trip is held in cooperation with the Museo Antropológico Padre Sebastian Englert and A Po — The Rapa Nui Youth Involvement Project. FLDSTUD-10-3401(12/10)75
